What does our Preschool offer?

An inclusive curriculum that provides a wide array of activities to go with the Bible story for each week. One In Christ by Concordia Publishing House.

Developmentally appropriate activities in all areas of curriculum. Child-centered and teacher-directed. Portfolio assessments are used with objectives based on the GOLD assessment.

Licensed by the Minnesota Department of Human Services.

Licensed, Christian teachers, qualified assistants, and volunteers

The Preschool children work on service projects with Redeemer church, the community and family.

Our Daily Schedule:

Free choice time with various learning centers to choose from: toys and manipulatives, blocks, discovery, sensory, art, dramatic play, library, writing, readiness activities.

Jesus Time: Bible story, songs, prayer, group activities

Snack

Story Time

Large/Small group: sharing bag, readiness activities, calendar, music

Large Muscle: group activities, large motor practice; indoor and outdoor

Field Trips during the year (primarily with the 4's classes)

"Great program. Great teachers. I love everything stems from spiritual means and I tell everyone-there's no program better!"

-Darci

What are the opportunities for parent involvement?

Parent/Teacher Meetings are held two times during the year, plus Parent Information notes, calendars, & weekly updates

Opportunities to assist in the classroom, on field trips, with the Christmas and Spring services and National Lutheran Schools Week.

Special family events and projects

Chapel once a month

"Love it! Highly recommend to anyone regardless of religious preference.! Appreciate the Christian-based Curriculum." -Kindra

"Redeemer Preschool is a wonderful school for your kids! It is fun & educational and the best part is the kids learn about God's love each day-not just on Sundays!"
